

Cambodia Cycle Challenge trip extension

I want to stay longer - what do I do?

There are two options open to you if you wish to extend your trip after the Cambodia Cycle Challenge has finished. Extensions are dependent upon flight availability and are not guaranteed as the flights booked as part of your Challenge have been arranged on a group basis.

How do I go about extending my trip?

Select one of the options below, tick the relevant box and return this form to Intrepid Travel with the appropriate payment. Please ensure that you fill in your personal details. The Intrepid Booking Conditions that are signed as part of your Challenge trip also apply to all extensions that you may book.

The extension cost is $90 per person

All extension forms must be received by Intrepid 3 calendar months prior to departure – please refer to your Confirmation letter for the cut-off date.

Once confirmed we will send you an e-mail notification. Your tickets will either be sent out to the address provided or given to you at the airport on your departure date.

Important note: Once you have requested an extension your seat will be released from the main group booking and cannot be changed back again, so please be sure of your intended dates when booking.

For the following option, there is an extension fee of $90 per person paid when submitting this form.

Option A: Independent travel option

This is the most flexible option for people who are interested in travelling in Cambodia after the Challenge has ended. You will receive a flight ticket that is valid for 35 days from your initial date of departure from Australia and make your own independent arrangements, flying home from Cambodia or stopping in Singapore.

Please note that we need an intended return date to book your ticket. Please pick your date carefully as once confirmed they cannot be changed.

Option B: Singapore stopover - 2 night hotel package

A chance to stopover in Singapore as there is just so much to do. Check out the cultural districts Chinatown, Kampong Glam and Little India, which are testimony to the island-nation's rich ethnic, cultural and historical heritage. The districts are home to religious monuments as well as quaint shop houses selling ethnic goods and cuisine. They provide an insight into the cultural fabric of Singapore and are perhaps the country's truest attractions. Go bargain hunting along Singapore's famous shopping strip - Orchard Road. This is where world-class shopping abounds. For the nature lover, Jurong Bird Park is one of the world's largest and most impressive aviaries, and a refuge for over 8,000 birds of 600 different species from all over the world.

The River View Hotel is centrally located at the crossroads of Singapore's most popular shopping area and the business district. It gives you easy access to Orchard Road shopping and Chinatown. This hotel has all the mod-cons required: air-conditioning, mini-bar, coffee and tea making facilities, personal room safe, colour TV and swimming pool. Check-in time is 12 midday. Transfers are not included but a taxi to/from the airport can easily be arranged.
